

STICK

Conference

'Industrial Heritage Skills'

11 October 2024

Discovery Point, Dundee

The 2024 STICK conference will explore whether Scotland has the skills it needs to promote, manage and protect our historic environment.

It will consider the status of Industrial Heritage Skills in Scotland today, sharing different projects and initiatives underway to address the challenges of managing and caring for industrial heritage collections.

Programme

09.45 Registration

10.15 'Get Ready to Doc n Roll', Mel Ruth Oakley (Dundee Heritage Trust)

10.35 'HMS Unicorn Conservation Challenges', Matthew Moran (HMS Unicorn)

11.00 BREAK

11.15 'Powering Our People' David Mann (Scottish Maritime Museum)

11.40 'Are industrial skills at risk in the heritage sector?' Ross McKirdy (Grampian Transport Museum)

12.05 'The Skills crisis: How do we fix it?' Jim Mitchell (Industrial Heritage Consulting)

12.30 LUNCH

13.10 TOUR: RRS Discovery conservation project

14.10 Discussion Panel

14.50 Next Steps, Final Remarks and thanks

Book your ticket via eventbrite:

<https://www.eventbrite.com/o/stick-13128860179>